

IMPROVED MEDICARE

For the first time ever, Medicare will help in pay for prescription medicines.

Starting on January 1, 2006, Medicare will help all of the 905,580 beneficiaries in Missouri receive the medicines they need. Additional help is available for low-income seniors.

Drug coverage can help lower current prescription costs and offer valuable protection against higher costs in the future.